For Immediate Release

Aegis Capital Corp., - Aegis Capital Corp. (www.aegiscapcorp.com) is pleased to announce Michael Fenton, has joined the firm as Managing Director/Global Equity Capital Markets.

Aegis Capital is pleased to announce that Michael Fenton has joined Aegis Capital as Managing Director/Global Equity Capital Markets. Michael has been in the securities industry for over 24 years. Michael started his career at Lehman Brothers, and has worked at Gilford Securities and Maxim Group where he was integral in the growth of the institutional coverage as well as expansion of capital markets verticals.

Michael will be overseeing the rebranding of the institutional sales coverage as well as expanding the capital markets practice for Aegis by leveraging existing relationships with some of the largest and most recognizable hedge funds in North America and Europe. Additionally, Michael will work with the Investment Banking group to expand collaborations with mid-sized brokerages and emerging growth companies that require access to capital and investor exposure.

Michael Fenton commented: "I look forward to working with Aegis Capital to assist this unique platform to expand and grow. I have never been more excited about an opportunity to help a strong business grow in so many different verticals, including; syndicate, capital markets, corporate access, research and institutional sales & trading."

Robert Eide Aegis' CEO commented: "We are pleased Michael has joined Aegis Capital and expect his experience, credentials and vast knowledge will be a great addition to our capital markets team."
